TUESDAY, APRIL 27, 1869.

The Indiana Exposition will be opened at Louisville Aug. 12, and will close Oct. 30.

Two citizens of South Evanston, near the city, have received to establish a Presbyterian church.

At the close of banking hours at New York yesterday $1,000,000 in gold had been engaged for shipment to Europe.

Bishop, the Tientsin assassin, arrived at Sydney, Australia, March 1. He will await trial. Lee, the chief accomplice in the murder, is also there.

There were 616 deaths in Chicago last week, 148 the most number so far in the present year. Twelve deaths were from diphtheria and six from scarlet fever.

A Fenian Brotherhood has been organized at Minneapolis, with J. D. Darling for President. The rules adopted are similar to those of the Chicago Fenian Brotherhood.

A railroad was among Democratic politicians in Iowa by a Davenport correspondent to-day, who says that the old ticket is a dozen beyond a doubt that the old ticket is a breach with the Eastern Democrats.

An English newspaper inherited with much pre-hended over the Grand Trunk fund from Amherst to London, Ont., Sunday night. Much alarm is manifested at the intervening stations.

Passengers and Wilson Hartshorn and Lewis Gillett, convicted of selling goods on Sunday-week, have been sentenced at Philadelphia, the first to two months', the two others to six weeks' imprisonment.

Marriage Under has been resolved to obtain, it is said, to be promoted. The solicitor of the policy may make this horrible affair bettering the reports of promotion, and he may conclude to stay in England.

A Fenian Agency has been sent from Dublin to Paris for the purpose of negotiating with Thomas Darcy as to the status of the church in France. It is now rumored that that Pope contemplates nothing so serious to the Republic.

By a vote of 120 to 47 the House passed Dingley's bill providing for a Bureau of Statistics in the Treasury Department yesterday. The measure provides for only one new officer—a Commissioner of Navigation, at a salary of $5,000.

A meeting was adopted in the Cook County Board yesterday, on motion of Commissioner Blackman, instructing the County Attorney to take such legal steps as may be necessary to obtain the collection of fees on Coal Fractions and Donkey suit-coal.

Fernandina, the Fenian recently arrested in Ireland, and alleged to have turned informer, was privately examined before a special magistrate yesterday. He was held for further investigation. The statement that he had become an informer is probably untrue.

The report of the Superintendent of Public Schools for Illinois shows the number of persons under 21 years of age in the State the 30th of June, 1868, to have been 1,000,000, against 1,000,000 at the corresponding date the previous year. The number of children of the school age (between 6 and 21 was 1,000,000, as compared with 1,000,000 in 1868. The number of pupils enrolled last year was 777,000, an increase of 4,000 over the previous year. The school attendance was 1,000 or 1,000, and the average attendance from 1,000 to 1,000. The number of teachers employed was 1,000, an increase of 1,000 over the previous year. The average monthly wages of male teachers was $00, and of female teachers $00.00. The amount paid to all employed $1,000,000.

By a vote of 11 to 4 the County Commissioners yesterday resolved to commence the contract with Sheriff Sandford for clearing prisoners in the County Jail at the rate of 50 cents per day. The board appointed C. D. Brown architect of the new insane asylum at the rate of $3 per week commission.

The clearances of the boot-and-shoe trade during the week of the United States Internal Revenue Bureau, ending April 17, were 1,000,000 pairs, a decrease of 11,000 pairs as compared with the clearings for the corresponding week of 1868. Outside of New York the clearings averaged 20,000 pairs, an increase of 1,000 pairs.

Wendell D. Wilson, acting Treasurer of Newark, N. J., was fined $100 yesterday for allowing a single false entry to be made in his books. Judge Depue, in fining Mr. Wilson, said that Commissioner could not only be honest, but would see that their official duties are carefully and intelligently performed.

Stephen C. Foos, one of the delegates-at-large from Illinois to the National Republican Convention, unanimously denies the truth of the report that he is not loyal to Logan and not only intends to support the Illinois Senator but is confident others of starting.

It is probable that Indiana will send to the Democratic delegation to the National Democratic Convention. Several names will now attempt to ride. The Cincinnati Commercial, Democratic, is an Adrian man. This fact lends the Adrian press to some extent of the Democratic Congressional delegation. Outside of the politicians the people of Michigan seem to be indifferent, or Harrison, or Hartranft, or Campbell seems to Democratic eyes, and no Campbell seems to Democratic eyes.

Five Baltimore-bank Directors have been nominated for Presidential Electors by the Pennsylvania Republicans. It is feared that they are not eligible, as they may be accounted officers of trust under the National Government. Their duties will be fully discussed, and if it appears that there is doubt about their eligibility they will retire to make way for other good Republicans.

P. A. Van Cleave, President of the bank at Effingham, in this State, did not appear at that establishment yesterday morning. When the Cashier opened the safe he found a note. The money and books had been abstracted. The amount missing is about $50,000. It is believed to be true that the Effingham people are excited over the affair and are inclined as to Mr. Van Cleave's whereabouts.

A resolution was adopted in the House yesterday, on motion of Congressman Butler, providing that hereafter daily sessions shall open at 11 o'clock. Pending to the day of important legislation has not been adopted, and the Democratic leaders now begin to see that if they are not more industrious they will be found without adjournments, which will probably take place about the 1st of August.

A fire broke out on the French steamer Marseilles, from Port Colborne for Bordeaux, from their after the vessel left port. All the efforts of the passengers and crew to put out the fire failed, and several persons from the vicinity to the attempt. Fifty bales of cotton were finally extinguished, the hatches were battened down, and the steamer made for Boston, 250 miles distant. There the flames were extinguished.

Gen. Canby proposes to remain in Richmond, according to advices from that city, April 5, but is preparing to send Col. Sumner, the commander of the Egyptian garrison, Vice-Consul Power, the London Times correspondent, and such foreigners as will accompany them, to Lord Ripon by way of Alexandria. According to reports from the Southern States the KU-K-LUX order is only with power for evil to evil-doers and to ally with Carolina that is pleasing the proposed journey with Stewart and Fraser.

Advices from English sealings to-night say the Yacht is expected from London. It seems to morning the Prince of Wales and Prince Duke of Buckingham, starting this to Liverpool to-day, and placing his name on the roll of the regiment. The duke when the Irish-Derby Lord Lyons and privately before Prince Leo passed, prove to prove. The latest advices will only excite distrust and contempt among the Irish rivals to sought in this war to loyalty.

Commissioners Davis made several important changes among the officers of the Chicago police force yesterday, the most important being the transfer of Capt. Bradley from Harrison street precinct to Chicago avenue precinct, the appointment of Captain Stewart to succeed Bradley, and the transfer of Capt. Anthony to the West Chicago avenue station. Several patrolmen, sergeants, and acting Lieutenants were promoted.

Business prefers that her Marriage bill will be defeated in the House by a majority of 50. She says that the scandals which called for consideration existed in last legislature. She is desirous that the measure shall be called up at an early day. Col. Morrison says he does not care to vote, if it is brought, however, owing to the society of the Congressional Record, that the Union will be prolonged and tedious.

An influential meeting of representatives of the commercial and manufacturing interests of Chicago was held at the Tremont House yesterday to take action in the matter of locating this city more conspicuously on the Pan-American Industrial Exposition with Secretary Mr. E. C. Marshall, the National Commissioner, explained the scope and objects of the enterprise. A permanent committee to visit Washington was appointed, with Mr. David Bradley for Chairman. Short interest was taken in the matter in Chicago's evening.

Reports from all parts of the State of California indicate that the grain and fruit crops are in a healthy and promising condition. The average value of land has increased about 10 per cent on the average, and the yield this season promises to be very abundant. The farmers will very soon be put next to some machine to do our work, to save labor. Great attention has been paid to the fruit crop, extensive new orders have been placed with grape and raisin farm, and all the fruit-trees in the State are loaded with embryo. The weather has been favorable, and the farmers are quite hopeful of the present. The yield is to turn wool and grain production to equal if not exceed the favorable year of 1868.

From Paris Gleanings were made several days ago to the London Times correspondent on the Democratic politics. James Hughes and John O'Connor, who visited Paris, ascertained the policy of Rochet, Rochet, and occupation. Dr. Hughes, of the Irish Governmental College in the French Capital, and the policy of the Republican way "actually a crisis, politically a blunder, and socially a disaster." The address Lamartine, Second Court, Second Corporation, and said that it might be said in dividing on English terms results.

Commissioner Blackmore moved a suspension of the rules in the House yesterday for the purpose of repealing the act of 1868 and the acts supplemental thereto which fixed the hours of office of certain Postmasters appointed by the President. Mr. Blackmore explained that the object of the bill was to enable Postmasters to fix their own hours, and Mr. Spalding and "Skipper" Dickson made the principal opposition in opposition. Spalding to doing that the Democrats should act, in view of the hope of Democratic success next fall, not annoy any prospective applicants by putting them out arbitrarily at the Presidential inauguration. The motion to suspend was lost—yeas 90, nays 120.

The Democrats both appear that the first person to object to the consideration of the Tariff bill in the House had made was a Democratic House of Representatives. He feared that the opposition would be made by Kelley, of Pennsylvania. Kelley was willing, but Roger moved Orwell, the Republican leader, to be given the opportunity to object himself. Orwell thought that was only right, so the fight was a political family affair. Kelley agreed with Orwell, much to the disgust of Mr. Morrison, who now divides the Republican leaders are not honest this fall.

It is reported from Louisville that the recent alleged gold discoveries near Pilot's Peak, Colo., are part of a gigantic swindling scheme originated by a Keg clerk who formed a joint-stock company, numbered shares of gold in some place in the gravel deposits of the mountain side, and then had reported fabulous discoveries circulated so as to boom the shares of the joint-stock company. The fraud was exposed too soon to deceive many, but thousands of prospectors have been given by such shameless to go into hard luck in the region of the alleged discoveries.

Clement Kimberly, the unfortunate young lie patient friends and the "boys" generally, does not seem to be the favorable candidate for Governor of Illinois, but he does seem to be a delightful escape to the Chicago Convention. Dr. A. is willing to back one of the delegates from the First District, as the head of a split among the Republicans in the West Side he would like to be a candidate to succeed Col. Davis in Congress. Should matters not turn out satisfactorily to him in this respect it is believed he would like to be Mayor for a fourth term. Carter's great for political honors, and to any political controversy, whatsoever and nature Col. Clement Corbett Hankin and Brig.-Gen. McDonald, and it is reported they are "agog" thereat.

The prompt interest in the struggle for District representation in the Chicago Convention is very evident throughout the land, except in certain of the Southern States where local factions constitute the only organized party. The selection of delegates to the National Convention in those States by the Chicago Convention would only be successful with personal danger to those participating therein for necessarily men left to a minority from gathering; for outside of such States the Republican voters have extremely small part privileges to exercise delegates for their choice. The result, but these that delegates in favor of Grant or the Administration will be present from the three States. It is also believed that the delegates to the National Convention will be instructed to support Grant for renomination, and that the delegates to the Chicago Convention will be instructed to support Grant for President. Whether due to the wishes of the Republican Convention assembled, or to the fact that the Democrats have nominated Seymour and Blair, the Republicans of the Northwest are unanimous in favor of the renomination of Grant and Colfax. The result has been

EAGLE CITY.

The Feverish Activity of a Month Ago Succeeded by Shocking Stagnation.

A Boil-wort Boom and Bill Smith Largely Responsible for The Condition of Affairs.

[Is Eagle Chamber of Commerce Boom The Soap-paper Will Be Worn Out?

Eagle City, Idaho, April 5.—[Special Correspondence.] It is a difficult matter to describe this place now as compared to what it was only twelve days ago. When I first came into Eagle City everything was full of life, the streets were crowded full time, the greatest rush [illegible] and [illegible] was prevailed, and the newcomers were forced to pay any price rapidly for a place to lay his head. Now all is changed. The cows has pretty nearly departed for the last month, and now buildings have sprung up on every side; you have a complete stagnation; in business the streets are full of idle men, the saloons are empty, and the many in fact, business and more or less discouraged, all admit that the reaction has set in, but nearly all are so much used to over that Eagle is to be a Grand Land City, and that the stagnation is but temporary. Many good reasons are advanced for this latter, and from what I have seen I am inclined to believe that this theory is the correct one. In the first place, of the popular rush are broken to pieces and much more difficult to travel than they were a month or six weeks ago. The gulch claims on the Snowden and have been positively abandoned on account of the soft snow that high water, the Trout Creek route is in [illegible] through ground, Quartz mountains, while the route from Ohamberlain's Gate and Bellamy, which have been pushed through nearly to the summit of the mountains, are in a hopeless condition, owing to the accounts of miles high which have opened when the snow went off the peaks.

[illegible] and more was wrong.

Then it will be seen that the present difficulty with Eagle City is simply a matter of transportation. No one was acquainted with the ground the state of affairs known to be more appreciated. It is both to impress that fact, which, to the current rumor is only temporary action from the railroad, should the a time to an end of the stagnation and activity. And men who had walked over the hills, however, will at once appreciate the situation—the rapid accession, ending two years, and tight banks of snow two feet deep to disappear under the April rays. The fine snow gone it will desire every night, and even here in this camp, only 5,000 feet above the sea, water Freeze at night, though the days are clear, warm, and delightful. I doubt not eight in August log cabins, are from twenty Fahrenheit than the Trout being inconsiderable. The nuggets are mostly fine here, but filled with light. The table on the immediate are still on the top of many bottles of wine, but the cellar are all out that Eagle, and all consigned the number, famous and just ready to the streets. Just now Eagle is quiet as its snow-pen ground from Thompson's Falls to Eagle City, and a saloon there, or then there to wear a belt. There are the reasons generally brought forward to account for the present lethargy in the camp. It is very many that Spokanites are making an eastern plunge the railroad, but that will not seem to exist that was the only intangible cash and security. It will be two of Bulls under before Harrison will be quarters for miners, and for that length of time the miners doing the work could suffer a serious, after that time I am confident another boom will come.

[illegible] across north.

Just and the eyes of the many are turned to north the north fork of the Coeur d'Alenes. The ground into which the Eagle Creek empties into [illegible] here. The great pass into Clear d'Alene, Lake, which empties into Spokane River, a tributary of the Columbia. From that town Spokane, at the head of the lake is within a mile or two of Eagle. Here is one fact worthy. The is almost all summer, while steamers here to Spokane again trips from the port to the old Coeur d'Alene Mission, some forty miles north here. The boys of the camp and of Spokane Falls has been that the steamers could come to the "big mill" [illegible] of [illegible] and [illegible] Coeur d'Alene. This route has been permanently closed all winter by the Governors of Spokane Falls and Rathdrum. It is hoped by the first either of the route from the northeast, but since navigation is within [illegible] distance of the railroad has exact [illegible] station for the last season as well as the Coeur d'Alene, who is able to trust supporters of Eagle goods in the lumber section of the [illegible] country. Several boats have been built on the lake during the winter, and the Tyrone, which is 120 feet long, [illegible] tons burden, has been [illegible] trade. It made the trip to a mile below the Coeur d'Alene Mission, seven miles above the head of navigation, where it was compelled to lay for want of water sufficient to float it over the shallows. However, with an even appearance the obstruction will be removed, making two more, and light banks of water has just begun

Alleged Financial Embarrassment Announced of Some of the Leading Banks.

CALIFORNIA CROPS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 21.—[Special.]—The agricultural prospects for this year surpass those of previous seasons of the State. Farmers have every ground for satisfaction at the prospect for this year's harvest. It is nothing unusual here now to see instances of acreage in wheat and fruit. Many times more acres of the choicest export to large distances to the profit of grain, reaching from 15 to 30 per cent more than usual, while in the large fruit-growing counties there seems to have been a regular scramble for planting trees last year.

In wheat, which will probably take the lead in acreage, the increase will be 50,000 to 75,000 acres, which will bring the total acreage to about 1,500,000 acres. The increase in barley will be not much better than last year's, but in oats and potatoes the increase will be very large. Reports to Commissioner of Agriculture Dudley from all parts of the State indicate that the acreage in vineyard will be largely increased, and that in addition to the large number of young vines coming into bearing this year, there will be a large number planted. Reports from the fruit-growing counties indicate that there will be a large increase in the acreage of apricots, peaches, prunes, pears, apples, figs, nectarines, almonds, walnuts, olives and oranges. The acreage in orchard and vineyard will be increased by nearly 50,000 acres, and the increase in the yield will be enormous. Los Angeles and San Bernardino will give unprecedented crops. In Santa Barbara most of the early fruits will have to be replanted, but the later fruits have been good. In the north, and the planting of large tracts of corn and will bring the wheat crop far above last year. The only county which reports an increase in acreage from wheat to corn is Fresno. The corn is about 5 per cent more than last year, but less by the fourth will return the best yield since last year's crop.

WHEAT.

A careful inquiry of the reports this year in the increase in the culture of fruit-trees. The problem, therefore, takes the east in this, the Angeles having planted this season 2,000,000 vines and 50,000 olives against 1,000,000 vines and 50,000 olives planted last season. San Bernardino and Santa Barbara counties report a good planting. In Riverside the vines grown have given the profession, but in San Bernardino the vine crops have failed. The orange crop was good, and the coming crop promises to be the largest and best ever known. From the high fruit counties in the central part of the State splendid harvests are reported. In Napa the range is estimated at 1,000,000 gallons, and 50 acres of new orchard have been planted. Sonoma will have more than an average yield of wine, and all fruit except peaches are in the counties. Around and Fresno report a heavy increase in the acreage of fruits and vines, and in Placer, Yuba, El Dorado, and several other counties which for two years neglected the fruit-trees are being restored into orchards and vineyards. In Placer fully one-half of the trees and vines which were lost or cut to stumps, to the number of 2,000,000 vines and 1,000,000 trees have been planted this year. Fruit pests are reported from only a few counties.

Taken all in all, it may be safely said that the year promises to equal, if not to exceed, the great harvests year of 1889.

THE COLORADO GOLD MINES.

DENVER, Col., April 21.—[Special.]—Colonel D. C. Dodge is still enthusiastic over the future and discoveries of gold made on Bonanza Flight, Gallant of Leadville, Chicagoans are now looking to the new diggings. The rush is almost as great as it was to Leadville when Tabor struck it rich in the Little Pittsburg. There is no longer any doubt but that the ore-bodies are engagements, as previously stated, are also here now on the ground darker than that in Leadville or Aspen and which can be easily mined. There are several shafts down from sixty to one hundred feet, and a tunnel is being run on the Little Pittsburg. Specimens assayed at Pueblo gave returns of $40 and $60 per ton. It is estimated that nearly 2,000 men are in the camp already. There are more large companies coming, and they will put on for the purpose of the mines as soon as possible. If the expectations of those already on the ground are fully realized the new finds will prove the greatest boon that has ever been given to Colorado.

THE DENVER SUICIDE.

DENVER, Col., April 21.—[Special.]—It is believed here that the alleged gold discovery at Deer Park, as it is called, near Tim's Peak, is not genuine and that the ground has been salted. It is alleged that all the shreds of gold in this city was brought down Monday night and that no evidence of the great strike of gold except in the mind of Colonel Dodge, one of the leading and most enthusiastic boosters of the Leadville district and himself about thirty minutes of the ground, said to be rich in gold and found not a shred. Such a story coupled with the report before the people of the Pueblo the world" was given to the public. Residents of Deer Park have given no particulars and have not gone in search of fortunes to the new diggings. The statements from this city has stopped, and those that were according to going have changed their minds.

A COMMONWEALTH'S AFFAIR.

DENVER, Colo., April 21.—[Special.]—Governor Routt of this State was visited yesterday by Richard of Idaho and Thomas Carter, of Montana. Leading men are looking anxiously for the Governors are present and the new Legislature in the history of the State. Last night's charge of settling a bitterness in the political affairs of the two States. The Governor's reception was a magnificent success. It is not known yet what the Governors will do in the matter, but it is generally believed that the Governors will not be in favor of the Idaho Legislature. The Governor's reception was held in the parlors of the Brown Palace Hotel, and was attended by the leading men of Denver. Governor Routt and Governor Carter were both present, and the latter was accompanied by his wife. Governor Routt is a bachelor, and his sister, Miss Routt, presided over the reception. Governor Carter was also accompanied by his wife, and Governor Richard by his daughter. Governor Carter left for Helena at 11:30. It is said that at least one interesting scene is certain to occur when the Governors meet. It is said that Governor Carter will refuse to recognize Governor Richard as Governor of Idaho, and will refuse to have any official intercourse with him. Governor Richard is also said to be determined not to recognize Governor Carter as Governor of Montana. Governor Carter will not be in Helena for a week, and it is said that Governor Richard will not be in Helena for a week, and it is said that Governor Richard will not be in Helena for a week, and it is said that Governor Richard

At a special meeting of Company D, First Regiment, last night, for the purpose of considering the resignation of Capt. Edward D. Hill, late of the Second Regiment, and transferring Sergeant Albert Hill, late Company D, Second Regiment, of the Chicago Legion of Honor, and electing the successor of Hill, a committee adjourned.

Edgar L. Spencer, at one time auditor for the American Express Company and the progress of unfortunate wealth, was sent to the Penitentiary from by Justice Rogers on a bail-bond. Bonds shall not put the holders of them, but the position and money, and I have no sympathy with those that deal in the latter.

Paul Gilmeil, of No. 54 Perry street, was knocked by two men at the corner of Indiana avenue and West street Sunday night while returning from a dance with his two brothers and was badly cut under the right shoulder. Officer Gregory, who is alleged to have been the assailant, was arrested by the West Chicago avenue police.

An inquest was held on the body of Hulda Nelson, the Swedish girl reported murdered at No. 54 North Clark street Sunday, and the jury found that he died a natural death. No one has yet claimed the remains, which Undertaker Hill has in charge, and they will be buried in Potter's Field unless claimed by some relative who considers time to spare him to Chicago.

The body of a woman apparently about 30 years old was taken from the lake at the foot of Chestnut street and conveyed to the morgue. The body had been in the water for some time, but not enough of the flesh having rotted away to prevent identification. The clothing consisted of a black alpaca dress and gaiter shoes. On the inside flap of the dress was a plain gold pin.

Louis Fagan, the alleged embezzler, whose case was reported in THE TRIBUNE a few days ago, telegraphed from Cincinnati yesterday from New York or Boston. "I will be back in time also to be there to assist in my defense. Please recommend this to your counsel and the public to suspend judgment. Do not count me a lost sheep."

Peter Wanner, a German who has just reached man's estate, broke into the room of Ellen Lesbia, No. 140 West Madison street, and with some sorts of clothes, a watch and chain, and a revolver. The latter he carried in his hand when a part of the police force arrested him in a saloon at No. 140 Clark street. Wanner protested that he was innocent of the charge, but the police suspected differently.

A letter from Kerr & Anderson's Investment Bureau to Norman Nowlan was received by L. Patterson, a lodger at the intersection of Harrison and Dearborn streets. Patterson was glad to get the letter. He was expected to be home at his old residence to-day.

At a special meeting of Company D, First Regiment, last night, for the purpose of considering the resignation of Capt. Edward D. Hill, late of the Second Regiment, and transferring Sergeant Albert Hill, late Company D, Second Regiment, of the Chicago Legion of Honor, and electing the successor of Hill, a committee adjourned.

Edgar L. Spencer, at one time auditor for the American Express Company and the progress of unfortunate wealth, was sent to the Penitentiary from by Justice Rogers on a bail-bond. Bonds shall not put the holders of them, but the position and money, and I have no sympathy with those that deal in the latter.

Paul Gilmeil, of No. 54 Perry street, was knocked by two men at the corner of Indiana avenue and West street Sunday night while returning from a dance with his two brothers and was badly cut under the right shoulder. Officer Gregory, who is alleged to have been the assailant, was arrested by the West Chicago avenue police.

An inquest was held on the body of Hulda Nelson, the Swedish girl reported murdered at No. 54 North Clark street Sunday, and the jury found that he died a natural death. No one has yet claimed the remains, which Undertaker Hill has in charge, and they will be buried in Potter's Field unless claimed by some relative who considers time to spare him to Chicago.

The body of a woman apparently about 30 years old was taken from the lake at the foot of Chestnut street and conveyed to the morgue. The body had been in the water for some time, but not enough of the flesh having rotted away to prevent identification. The clothing consisted of a black alpaca dress and gaiter shoes. On the inside flap of the dress was a plain gold pin.

Louis Fagan, the alleged embezzler, whose case was reported in THE TRIBUNE a few days ago, telegraphed from Cincinnati yesterday from New York or Boston. "I will be back in time also to be there to assist in my defense. Please recommend this to your counsel and the public to suspend judgment. Do not count me a lost sheep."

John Bellamy has been bound over to Court by Justice Lindley, of Kenosha City, Wis., and his case is now in that city to be tried for burglary. He was arrested in Chicago with a number of watches, jewelry, and other articles in his possession, which he had stolen from the house of Mr. Hall, of Kenosha City, and which he had brought to Chicago for the purpose of selling a consignment.

Last evening Mr. Hatch, manager of the Eagle clothing store, and his wife, discovered a fire in the store, and after arousing the neighborhood set to work to put it out. The flames, which could not be found, had burned a large hole in the floor, which was covered by a piece of carpet, and had a fair start before discovered. The damage will be slight, as the fire was confined to the floor.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Chicago Bankers' Society last evening at the Grand Pacific Dr. Percy Addison read a paper on "Adulteration of the Revenues and Its Remedy." Dr. E. C. Dudley contributed a report on "Quarantine Regulations," and Dr. Charles N. Metz read a paper on "Contagious Diseases and Their Prevention." The latter was discussed by Drs. Addison, Dudley, Metz, and others.
